

PENGANGGURAN GRADUAN: PERSPEKTIF & ANALISIS RINGKAS

Nasrudin Mohamad

Abstract

This paper is written with two main objectives: (1) to provide a brief and scenario, in general, on the issue of unemployment among graduates; (2) to share data and knowledge regarding the issue of unemployment among graduates. Some findings are reviewed selectively, depending on the context. This paper concludes that more studies are needed in order to understand the issue better.
